Dear Ms. Yamoto

I am pleased to have the opportunity extended to me to work for your department. This position interests me greatly. However, I feel that the remuneration package you offer is not commensurate with my education and experience.

Please consider that after eight years of experience in the field, I will be able to be effective immediately. I am eager to get started in the new job as soon as possible, and am confident that we can reach agreement on remuneration.

I would like to meet with you again to discuss this, and will call to arrange an appointment.

Best regards,
Katie Lee
