A) Questions 1, 2, 3 and 4 refer to the following article. Select the best answer. (2,0)

On Monday, Salinas Products, a large food distributor based in Mexico City, announced its plans to acquire the Pablo's restaurant chain. Pablo Benavidez, the chain's owner, had been considering holding an auction for ownership of the chain. He ultimately made the decision to sell to Salinas without seeking other offers. According to inside sources, Salinas has agreed to keep the restaurant's name as part of the deal. Mr. Benavidez started the business 40 years ago right after finishing school. He opened a small food stand in his hometown of Cancun. Following that, he opened restaurants in Puerto Vallarta and Veracruz, and there are now over 50 Pablo's restaurants nationwide.
